

"Marie Varlet has taught all of our English lawyers in Paris for 17 years. In every case she has brought out the very best of her students' talents and abilities. She approaches her work with rigour but with a flexibility borne of deep awareness of the demands and unpredictability of professional life. Her unfailing courtesy coupled with a great sense of fun make her the perfect guide and companion in learning to perform better and appreciate more as a foreigner working in Paris."

(Managing Partner of Paris office of leading International law firm.)